

since 1981

“The first explorers of Mauritius variously labeled the Dodo: a wild turkey, a cassowary, a ‘hooded swan’, a booby and a ‘bastard ostrich’. In fact, the Dodo was a large, flightless dove which primarily because of its gentle dove like qualities, became extinct in 1680. The Dodo (Raphus cucullatus) was without doubt the largest and strangest dove ever to have lived.”
